

Community Bank Advisory Council

Member Biographies

Consumer Financial Protection Bureau

April 2019

Chairperson, Maureen Busch serves as Vice President, Compliance and CRA Officer at The Bank of Tampa, a $1.7 billion community bank. In this role, she is responsible for the Bank's regulatory compliance program. She has over 25 years of experience in bank regulatory compliance, consumer reporting compliance for a nationwide specialty consumer reporting agency and risk management. Previously, Maureen worked in various compliance leadership roles at organizations including FIS, Jon Campbell & Associates, Inc., PCB Bancorp, and Mercantile Bank. She earned a B.S. in Business Administration, with a concentration in Accounting, from the College in Saint Elizabeth in Morristown, New Jersey, and a Master of Accountancy from the University of South Florida. Maureen is a Certified Regulatory Compliance Manager (CRCM) and Certified Public Accountant (CPA). Maureen is actively involved in the Suncoast Bankers Compliance Association and serves on the Loan Committee of Solita's House, Inc., a Tampa-based CDFI.

Erik Beguin is Founder, CEO, and President of Austin Capital Bank, a community bank and fintech innovator. He founded the bank to serve the needs of low and moderate income communities and develop unique products that help consumers retain and grow household wealth. Prior to founding Austin Capital Bank, he helped develop a commercial payments platform that was acquired by Bank of America and held positions with Procter and Gamble and KPMG. Beguin is an active member of his community having served on the Board for the American Red Cross of Central Texas, and volunteering for numerous community service organizations. Mr. Beguin is a member of the Community Depository Institution Advisory Committee for the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas. He holds an MBA with distinction from the University of Michigan, Ross School of Business and graduated Summa Cum Laude from Luther College, where he was inducted into Phi Beta Kappa.

Bryan Bruns currently serves as President and CEO of Lake Central Bank in Annandale, Minnesota. Lake Central is a 125-year old, $150 million bank, with 3 offices located in central Minnesota, which offers a full range of banking, insurance and investment products. In addition to his 30 plus years of community banking experience, Mr. Bruns is active in both the banking industry as well as his community. He is a member and past Chair of the Minnesota Bankers Association and continues to serve on the Government Relations Committee. In Addition, he currently serves on the Administrative Committee of the American Bankers Association's Community Bankers Council and is a member of the Financial Services Advisory Committee for US Congressman Emmer. His community service includes many years on the boards of the Annandale Public Schools, Great River Regional Library, Annandale Development Company, and Annandale Chamber of Commerce.

Michael Henry Head has worked for First Federal Savings Bank since 07/1980. Mr. Head started as a Management Trainee and has held the positions of Branch Manager, Loan Officer, Lending department Manager, Chief Operations Officer and named President in October 2000. Mr. Head was named President and CEO on July 1, 2004. He serves as Chairman of the Indiana Banker's Association and as a Board member since 2008. He also serves as the Indiana Delegate to the Independent Community Bankers Association Board. He received his BS in Finance & Economics from Indiana State University of Evansville (now University of Southern Indiana) in 1980. He received his MBA from the University of Evansville in 1987.

Aubery L. Hulings is the Vice President, Operations Manager of The Farmers National Bank of Emlenton. She has been with the organization for 18 years in various roles. Ms. Hulings has played an active role in the community serving on many committees and boards. She is a past Board Chair for the Butler County Chamber and currently a member of the Mortgage Bankers Association, Treasurer of the Knox Civic Club and board member of Keystone SMILES. Ms. Hulings has an Associates degree in Legal Business Studies and Bachelor's in Finance from Clarion University of PA. She is a graduate from the PA Bankers School of Compliance, School of Banking and Advanced School of Banking. Ms. Hulings has also received several awards during her career, including the Employee of the Year Award presented by the Chamber of Commerce, the Leadership Award and the Community Involvement Award from Farmers National Bank.

Heidi Sexton is Executive Vice President, Chief Operating Officer responsible for oversight of Information Technology and Security, Compliance, Enterprise Risk Management, and Project Management. Heidi grew up in Banking, starting her career as a teller while in college. Upon receiving her BA in Accounting from the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire, she moved to San Francisco and subsequently Seattle working as a Director for RSM McGladrey. Heidi joined Sound Community Bank in 2007 and previously served as the Vice President of Operations managing deposit, electronic, and lending operations. She currently holds a number of professional certifications including Certified Internal Auditor, Certified Regulatory Compliance Manager and is a graduate of the Washington Bankers Association's Executive Development Program. Heidi is passionate about providing financial education and serves as a volunteer and Board Member of Financial Beginnings, a non-profit that provides youth to adult programs at no cost.

Jeanni Stahl currently serves as MetaBank's Senior Vice President, Chief Risk Officer where she has responsibilities for overseeing a large network of innovative payment and lending products offered through nationwide delivery channels. Jeanni has over 25 years of financial services industry experience in roles in both business development and risk management, which has given her an appreciation for the need for a sound risk/reward balance. Jeanni worked as a Senior Bank Examiner at the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation for 8 years, examining banks throughout South Dakota, Minnesota, and Iowa. She then served in leadership roles at two Midwest financial institutions before joining MetaBank in 2009. Jeanni is actively involved in women's leadership and education initiatives, as well as Junior Achievement. Jeanni regularly speaks at industry and payments conferences on third party risk management and compliance. In 2017, Jeanni was appointed to the ABA Compliance Administrative Committee.